

From Learning of God by Amy Carmichael

It is a petty view of our Father's love and wisdom which demands or expects an answer according to our desires, apart from His wisdom. We see hardly one inch of the narrow lane of time. To our God eternity lies open as a meadow. It must seem strange to the heavenly people who have seen the beautiful End of the Lord, that we should ever question what Love allows to be, or ever call a prayer 'unanswered' when the answer is not what we expect; as one of our baby-songs says, 'Isn't No and answer?' And where what is called a 'fatal accident' is concerned I feel like adding, 'Isn't heaven an answer?'
